CRAZY BUT CUTE

"Crazy But Cute," a three act comedy, presented by the Senior Class, takes place in the rumpus room of Danny Dover, age fifteen. Dan's mother thinks it's time he behaved more socially with nice young girls and gives a tea party to celebrate. Dan messes everything up by coming in through a window wearing a home-made diving gear over his head. Dan's mother, easy going father, and glamorous cousin all get him dates for the celebrated Surf Club dance. To Dan's surprise, he finds himself with three dates that he doesn't really want at all. Finally, after much confusion, Dan doesn't go to the dance at all, but rather abalone diving.

"Cute like in bow-legged, or just cute?" asks Kathy as she talks about her blind date with Dan.

"Tea. Now that's right up my tree. Englishman I knew once had tea every afternoon. Come four o'clock and darned if he wouldn't drop everything and have his cup of tea," remarks Joe.

The leading trackman for the Mohawks, Bill Stilson, demonstrates his record breaking form in the shot-put. Bill established a new school record of 48' 11 1/2" in the shot-put. This toss also broke a league record which had stood since 1957. A new record of total points, 189, also belongs to Bill.

MOHAWK TRACK ACTION

Hurdlers Herm McConnell (left) and Larry Tagg clear the hurdles and kick for the next one during the low hurdle event. Herm and Larry were two of our top low hurdle men but both were sidelined part of the season with injuries.

Coach Watts sets dashmen (left to right) Bill Stilson, Herm McConnell, Bill Burden, and Ted Underwood, and then gives them the gun to start the race during a practice session. These boys "led the field" in many of our meets.

Ron Irwin finishes his leg of the mile relay and makes a successful pass of the baton to Dick Lyons.

Bob Cain displays the form that made him the Mohawks' biggest winner of the season with six wins and two losses. Ron Irwin had the best pitching record with five wins and no setbacks.

Bob proved the theory incorrect, "pitchers can't hit," by leading the team in batting with a 395 average. While not pitching, Bob played the shortstop position effectively.

SOPHOMORES GET RINGS

The Sophomore Class devoted most of their energies this year to conducting a Halloween candy sale, sponsoring a "twirp dance," and selecting and buying their class rings. The Soph's also had the envious job of welcoming the Freshmen into the high school.

The Sophomore Class was led by Mr. Fitzhugh, Advisor; Nancy Edgerly, Secretary; Don Wilber, Treasurer; Bob Tronsen, President; Dorothy Moore, Vice-President.

SENIOR HIGHLIGHTS

MOMENTS TO REMEMBER

These students graduated from Morley-Stanwood with honors. Presenting them with their awards is the High School Principal, Mr. Laurent. The students are: Linda Anderson, Alan Erickson, David Bird, Ted Underwood, Pauline Weeds, Jane Bush, Sharon Spedoske, Linda Stiles, and Gary Miller.

All the Seniors were required to plan and cook a meal in Psychology class. This group treated Miss Ryzenga to a REAL meal. The group consists of Gary Hopkins, Tony Linn, Paul Johnston, and Alan Erickson, who is taking the picture.

The Seniors, with the help of Mr. Beaton, organized a new club which helps the students plan their future goals regarding college. It is called HEP, which stands for higher education planning. Shown is the Senior branch of the organization.

One of the ways the Seniors helped fill their treasury was by sponsoring dances. Here, Seniors Linda Anderson, Kathy Moore, and Marlene Koehn, sell tickets at one of the dances.

Linda Stiles did a real clever pantomime act at the annual Christmas program. The selection was Roger Miller's "Chug-a-Lug."

Varsity cheerleader Gayle Crandall displays a real "winning spirit" at one of our basketball games this season.

Mr. Laurent presents Kathy Moore with her Valedictorian award for highest honors at M. S. H. S. Mr. Laurent also presented awards to Sue Shaffer, Salutatorian; and Gary Hopkins, Honor Student.

The speakers table is shown waiting for dessert after they had enjoyed a delicious meal of turkey and trimmings, mashed potatoes, peas, salad, rolls, cake, and ice cream.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET ENJOYED BY ALL

Toastmaster Ron Crandall kept the program moving and interesting at the Junior-Senior Banquet.

Everyone especially enjoyed the rivalry which arose between the Juniors and Seniors when the welcome and response were presented.

The Sophomores were honored with the privilege of serving at the banquet. Shown is Rose Webster waiting table.

The Prom was well attended. Shown are some of the couples dancing under the new sphere which was recently purchased by the Student Council.

IN THE MISTY MOONLIGHT

A few of the Juniors who helped plan and organize the Prom in honor of the Seniors are shown enjoying the festivities.

Karen Thompson, Bill Chapin, Ardith Dysard, and Mike Creighton relax with refreshments, and music provided by the Starlighters, a sixteen piece dance band.

Two of the couples take time out to enjoy a ride on the swing, which was one of the biggest highlights at the Prom.

ARNDT'S LOCKER PLANT

Superintendent Walton Erickson, who presented the diplomas to the 1965 graduating class, is shown as he awards his son, Alan, with his diploma.

NOT THE SUNSET; BUT THE DAWN.

The entire Senior Class stands and sings "Moments to Remember," a song whose lyrics were especially arranged for the Seniors.

Mr. Erickson presents the first diploma awarded to the Class of 1965, to Toddi Meyer, the first foreign exchange student at Morley Stanwood High School.

The Seniors have a chance to relax and get some fresh air before they must march.

Gary Hopkins and Ron Kelly make last minute arrangements of their appearance before the Commencement exercises begin.

Dr. Victor F. Spathelf, President of Ferris State College, gave the Commencement address. He encouraged more of the Seniors to further their education through College by illustrating what effect education will have on the future.

Jane Bush and Larry Rushmore lead the Seniors to the stage and the climax of their thirteen years of schooling.

Fifty Seniors and four chaperons visited the Washington Monument, Lincoln Memorial, Capitol Building, White House, Wax Museum, Arlington Cemetery, President Kennedy's grave, Bureau of Engraving and Printing, Archives, and the Smithsonian Institute.

SENIORS VISIT WASHINGTON D.C.

A Washington, D. C. policeman holds up traffic while the Morley-Stanwood Seniors cross the highway in front of the Capitol Building.

While in Arlington Cemetery the Seniors pause to view the grave of the late President Kennedy and his two children. The grave side is freshly stocked with flowers daily.

Some of the Seniors "check over" the various types of missiles and rockets at one of the many sections of the Smithsonian Institute.

Don Ellison appears to be "a fish out of water." Don actually is in the middle of a dive at the pool of the luxurious Park Arlington Motel where the Seniors stayed in comfort.

The Seniors take a rest before boarding the buses for more tours and more steps!

When the Seniors weren't right on schedule, they ended up waiting in line at Scholl's Cafeteria. The wait was worth it because the food was exceptionally good.

Gayle Crandall, Roger Friesner, Kay Knestrick, and Gary Hopkins, rest for a minute in the warm sunshine before entering the Museum of History and Technology.

Everyone is bright and cheerful and not at all tired!? Most of the Seniors wisely used the bus riding for rest but, of course, there were a few who used it for other things.

FOND MEMORIES

We of the Mohawk staff of 1965 sincerely hope that in the future years this issue of the "Mohawk" will be a cherished memento of happy years at Morley Stanwood High--a reminder of favorite classmates and of the wonderful hours outside the classroom.

For some of us, we have been here for four years of high school. Now we must leave and step out to face a future that is very uncertain. In whatever degree of success or failure we may find ourselves in years to come, if a glance at these pages will lighten our labors--if only for a single moment--we deem our yearbook worthwhile.

Each of the students here at M.S.H.S. had a part in making this school year one to be remembered. Each event will be remembered; some were happy occasions, and others sad, but they are made a part of our school career--a time never to be forgotten.
